

This dramatic documentary traces the erosion of access to safe abortions, including financial cut-backs, legislative restrictions, and the threat of violence.

Personal interviews and rare archival footage bring alive the stories of activists, doctors, clergy, and legislators whose work led to Roe v. Wade.

Intimate accounts reveal the medical, legal, and emotional consequences during the era of criminal abortion.

Awards for films in the series include:

- EMMY
National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences
- GOLD HUGO
Chicago International Film Festival
- GOLD MEDAL
Corporation for Public Broadcasting
- GOLD APPLE
National Educational Film and Video Festival
- OSCAR NOMINATION
Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences

Postage or imprint

Your return address

Film logo(s) here

Location/Station

Time

Sponsor (if applicable)

Film logo(s) here

Addressee

Location/Station

Time

Sponsor (if applicable)